'Namaste'!!

I P.L. Dalai, It is indeed pleasure to welcome you to visit and explore our website so that you may get to know the Simran Holidays product and the teams that bring it all together, all of whom are dedicated to ensuring that your experience with Simran Holidays is a happy one! When you send your first enquiry, it is immediately activated by our team who will acknowledge your communication. We then assign a team member to contact you with a detailed itinerary and quotation based on your personal 'wish list' and begin a dialogue with you to fine tune the tour and add in any special requests you may have. We can custom design a tour of the India to accommodate any and all of your requests according to your budget. It is our job to advise you of all the various details that will not only ensure your enjoyment, but most importantly, your safety and good health. Included in this website, we have a range of sample itineraries that cover all the regional areas of India. We can provide many means of transport, from private chauffeur driven cars, to luxury 'royal' trains, to commercial domestic flights. Once you have made your choices and your exciting tour is booked, you are ready for the experience of a lifetime. On arrival in India our Simran Holidays representatives will be waiting to greet you with a private chauffeur driven air-conditioned car that will whisk you to your hotel. You will be pre-registered and assisted by our representative who will ensure that your check in process is quick and seamless. I thank you for choosing Simran Holidays of India and wish you a wonderful experience on your journeys.
